Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment adviser representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that could be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. These include the following:

- A. A criminal or civil action in a domestic, foreign or military court of competent jurisdiction in which the supervised person
 1. was convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere (“no contest”) to (a) any felony; (b) a misdemeanor that involved investments or an investment-related business, fraud, false statements or omissions, wrongful taking of property, bribery, perjury, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; or (c) a conspiracy to commit any of these offenses;
 2. is the named subject of a pending criminal proceeding that involves an investment-related business, fraud, false statements or omissions, wrongful taking of property, bribery, perjury, forgery, counterfeiting, extortion, or a conspiracy to commit any of these offenses;
 3. was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation; or

4. was the subject of any order, judgment, or decree permanently or temporarily enjoining, or otherwise limiting, the supervised person from engaging in any investment-related activity, or from violating any investment-related statute, rule, or order.

Mr. Wood has no information applicable to this item.

- B. An administrative proceeding before the SEC, any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency, or any foreign financial regulatory authority in which the supervised person
 1. was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or
 2. was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation and was the subject of an order by the agency or authority
 - i. denying, suspending, or revoking the authorization of the supervised person to act in an investment-related business;
 - ii. barring or suspending the supervised person's association with an investment-related business;
 - iii. otherwise significantly limiting the supervised person's investment-related activities; or
 - iv. imposing a civil money penalty of more than $2,500 on the supervised person.

In May 2015, Legacy Planning & Associates, Inc. (“LPA”) was examined by the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs (the “Department”). In a letter, the Department identified deficiencies in the firm’s disclosure statements and Form ADV’s. As the firm’s owner, Mr. Wood, delegated the correcting of the deficiencies to the then Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”). In September 2016, the Department conducted a follow up examination that discovered the deficiencies were not addressed by the then CCO. The situation was exacerbated immediately after the second examination, when the then CCO attempted to use the examination’s findings and examiner’s observations to benefit a vendor firm in which he was aspiring to become a partner. Because of these actions, the Department suspended LPA and Mr. Wood. The suspension lasted from November 9, 2016 until December 8, 2017. Additionally, the Department placed Mr. Wood and LPA on a two-year heightened supervision program. Mr. Wood believes the issues would have been resolved prior to the initial hearing had the Department known of the then CCO’s intentions.

- C. A self-regulatory organization (SRO) proceeding in which the supervised person
 1. was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or
 2. was found to have been involved in a violation of the SRO’s rules and was: (i) barred or suspended from membership or from association with other members or was expelled from membership; (ii) otherwise significantly limited from investment-related activities; or (iii) fined more than $2,500.

Mr. Wood has no information applicable to this item.

- D. Any other proceeding in which a professional attainment, designation, or license of the supervised person was revoked or suspended because of a violation of rules relating to professional conduct. If the supervised person resigned (or otherwise relinquished his attainment, designation, or license) in anticipation of such a proceeding (and the adviser knows, or should have known, of such resignation or relinquishment), disclose the event.

Mr. Wood has no information applicable to this item.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Mr. Wood is an owner and independent insurance agent for Capital Accumulation Planning Corp. He is appointed with various insurance companies and may recommend insurance products to the firm's clients. He spends approximately 1 hour per month on this activity. This is a conflict of interest because the commissions paid by the insurance products give Mr. Wood a financial incentive to recommend and sell them to clients. It is important to note that the fees and commissions are separate from the fees outlined in the firm's ADV Part 2A. However, Mr. Wood attempts to mitigate any conflicts of interest to the best of his ability by placing the client's interest ahead of his own, through his fiduciary duty and by informing client's that they are never obligated to purchase insurance through him.

Mr. Wood is owner of Employee Benefits Group. He provides administrative services and record keeping for retirement plans. He spends approximately 10 hours a month on this activity. This is a conflict of interest because Mr. Wood receives a fee or commission for this service that is separate from the fees described in the firm's Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5. However, Mr. Wood attempts to mitigate any conflicts of interests to the best of his ability by placing the client's interests ahead of his own, through his fiduciary duty and by informing client's they are never obligated to purchase this recommended service through him.

Mr. Wood provides guidance and creates exit strategies for Spar Data, an evaluation company for businesses. He spends one to two hours per month on this activity. He may recommend this service to the firm's clients. This is a conflict of interest because Mr. Wood receives a fee or commission for this service that is separate from the fees described in the firm's Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5. However, Mr. Wood attempts to mitigate any conflicts of interest to the best of his ability by placing the client's interest ahead of his own, through his fiduciary duty and by informing client's that they are never obligated to purchase this recommended service through him.

Mr. Wood also acts as an expert witness for attorneys seeking information of retirement plans and the process on as needed basis.

Mr. Wood is the Secretary and Treasurer for his homeowner's association. He devotes one hour per month to this activity. There is no conflict of interest as these activities are a non-investment related.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Wood does not receive any additional compensation.

Item 6 – Supervision

Mr. Wood is the firm's sole principal and Chief Compliance Officer. As a result, he has no internal supervision placed over him. He is however bound by the firm's Code of Ethics and policies and procedures. Mr. Wood can be reached at (616) 719-2930.
